Everyone always remembers some last-minute shopping item they've forgotten about and the convenience sector comes into its own right before the Christmas and New Year period.

As such, the 'top-up shop' will be a key consideration for store owners across Scotland. In this feature, we will look at those key products that brands consider to be essential for the last-minute Christmas top up missions this December. We would welcome comments on the following:

- Which categories perform well from top-up shopping over the Christmas period? Which SKUs are key for retailers to stock up on for this shopping mission?
- What categories are common distress purchases during the festive season for consumers? How does this compare to the rest of the year? What last-minute Christmas essentials should be on retailers' shelves this year?
- What steps has your firm taken over the past year to ensure good availability for the festive season?
- How can retailers best advertise their store as a good place for a last-minute Christmas shop? How best can they site these products in stores?
- Do you have any NPD/campaigns you want to shout about?
